f. Decorative dish, presented to DCI. Received [redacted] 1976. Value
estimated to be under $50.00

2. It would be advantageous to the U.S. Government and the Agency if permission could be granted for the temporary loan of items "a" and "f" described above to the Agency for display in the Office of the Director of Central Intelligence.

3. Regarding the rings described in "b" above, it is requested that the one presented to the wife of the DCI be turned over to the proper official for appropriate storage. The ring presented to EA/DCI is in the process of being appraised and notification will be forthcoming as to proper disposal.

4. It is requested that items "c," "d," and "e" be turned over to the proper Government official for appropriate storage. The items are being held by me and can be picked up anytime.

5. It is requested that the identity of the donors not be reported to the Department of State, pending a determination of Agency policy, in order to protect the existence of sensitive intelligence liaison relationships.
